GENERAL PROGRAMME OF INTERNATIONAL INTEGRATION IN FLORENCE CALL FOR PROPOSALS FOR “CONFERENCES” to be included in the Program of Romualdo Del Bianco Foundation

PRELIMINARY REMARKS

The Romualdo Del Bianco Foundation program foresees 5 different types of initiatives:

1. “International workshops for university students”: the “traditional” weekly seminars among students of different European/Asian/American Universities matching with the social aims of International Integration without competition of Romualdo Del Bianco Foundation
2. “International Seminars of “Research for new events” for Professors, Scholars, Experts”: preliminary restricted meetings, panel discussions among academicians, scholars and experts in various fields, aimed to settle the basement and a preliminary arrangement for following cultural high-level initiatives, conference or highly-qualified courses
3. “Conferences”: one of the possible results of the previous kind of initiative, these meetings are among Experts, University Professors, Scholars, Researchers or other, in various field, and aimed to talk about a particular topic at the cutting-edge, producing reports both at preliminary (before the meeting) than at conclusive (final papers on digital and web format) level.
4. “Other cultural initiatives”: exhibitions, concerts, courses of specialisation, or others, by artists, professional, scholars, where culture is the mean to promote the mutual knowledge and integration among different cultures
5. “EU-funded projects”: proposals of project to be presented with the Foundation and other suitable partners taking part to its universities’ network

This form is to be filled up by anyone who wants to propose a “CONFERENCES”, according to the definition before.

Such a project should involve university professors, experts, scholars coming from different countries and should deal with subjects capable of stimulating mutual co-operation and exchange among them.
